TRAINING SOLUTION FROM NEW HORIZONS.

New Horizons
Online ANYTIME Learning

If you want a comprehensive instruction method, but prefer a more independent approach, Online ANYTIME Learning is for you. Available as Web-based or computer-based training, the course content is the same as our world-renowned instructor-led training.

All the resources you need, right on your desktop.

Online ANYTIME is more cost-effective than just about any other training option. With more than 500 courses, there is something for everyone—from IT professionals to staff who need to learn the basics of desktop applications. There's even an online technical library that gives you access to hundreds of technical reference books.

Train anytime you have the time.

Online ANYTIME learning is convenient and easy. You can fit education into your busy schedule, whether you are at the office, at home, or on the road. Training is available when you are, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. And Online ANYTIME provides user-friendly administration features to help you track progress, create customized reports and demonstrate results.

The latest and greatest courses.

We update our course list constantly, making sure that current titles contain up-to-the-minute information, so your skills stay razor-sharp. You can choose from hundreds of titles in the Online ANYTIME libraries:
